Part III - a:

Member Educational Programs: During the course of the year all members and interested professional colleagues in planned giving are invited to attend Council educational programs. Actual paid membership in the Council ranges from 225 to 275 each year, with about 80% of the members working for non-profit organizations and the other 20% working for for-profit companies providing planned giving services to member organizations and/or donors. Membership in the Council is by individuals, not organizations. Bi-monthly programs are planned to provide continuing educational opportunities for planned giving professionals focusing on significant issues in planned giving. In 2005 the Council presented five different bi-monthly programs using regionally and nationally recognized speakers with attendance ranging from 100 to over 130 participants.

Part III - b:

Annual Symposium: Each year the Council presents an all-day symposium highlighting important issues in planned giving. This symposium draws between 175 and 210 attendees primarily from the Council's membership, but also from throughout the Midwest. Speakers come from across the country and present topics ranging from basic planned giving to sophisticated planned giving matters.
